Our Message

Dear Valued Members,

The Club will be bustling with activities and promotions in the month of May and June. Read on and find out what is coming up soon!

Make mum feel extra special on Mother's Day with a feast fit for a queen at your preferred dining outlet! Our culinary team has also ensured that dad will also get to enjoy a special dining experience with delectable menus on Father's Day at the Signature outlets. Reserve your seats and thank mum and dad for their unconditional love on these special occasions.

On 22 & 23 June 2024, there will be a line-up of activities and a wide selection of food choices so that our members and their loved ones get to spend happy times together. Signature outlets will be presenting exclusive menus, while hawkers stalls are specially set up at The Dunearn Ballroom to sell mouthwatering dishes. We also have gathered our partners to set up bazaar stalls at The Dunearn Ballroom for our members and guests to shop a variety of products at one venue.

The Dining Room unveiled its new à la carte lunch menu. Be captivated by the flavours of the new creations, especially Chef's Recommendations like Pan-seared Prime Beef Steak and Oven-roasted Black Pepper Pork Chop!

Get energised with delicious promotional deals at our Signature outlets. Savour the deep flavours of meticulously cooked Cantonese cuisine through The Chinese Restaurant's Chef's Specials. At Miyabi Japanese Restaurant, you can "Create your own meal" in May. And get to cook your own A5 grade Wagyu Beef in June. If you prefer a quick meal, check out The Café & Terrace's Chef's Special. At the same time, The Dining Room is offering an Italian Special to satisfy your craving of simple and fresh taste of Italian cuisine.

Book a family-friendly staycation package with The Front Office for a mid-year break and watch your little ones let out squeals of delight during their play time at the pool. And the good news is that dining voucher is included in the package!

Not sure if you should sign up for yoga or pilates class? We have done a comparison, looking at the similarities and differences between the two, for your consideration before you sign up for the classes. If you still cannot decide, contact The Sports and Recreation Department to register for both classes and experience it yourself!

We are also sharing some tips and ideas to show appreciation for your mum and dad through meaningful activities that your mum, dad and even yourself will love. Start planning with our list today!

We hope that you and your loved ones will be spending loads of bright and happy times at the Club with the activities and food selection in May and June. We look forward to seeing you at the Club!

幸福才圆 Happy Reunions

Our Members and their family had their hearty reunion feast at the Club's dining venues. While they were enjoying the abundant spread of delicacies, the appearance of the God of Fortune brought smiles to diners' faces and there was a lion dance performance giving blessings to all present!

Dance to Good Fortune

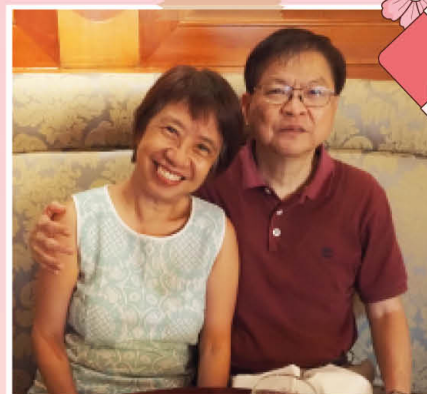

On the second day of Chinese New Year, the familiar lion dance drumming rhythm echoed through the dome area of The Main Lobby. Our Members and their guests gathered around and enjoyed the "pluck the greens" performance. Members at dining venues also caught the lions in action. Many seized the opportunity to interact with the God of Fortune too!

Love is Sweet

Diners and their Valentine dressed up to the nines for their Valentine's Day dinner at The Dining Room. They celebrated their love with food and savoured the specially curated 4-course set meal filled with the sweetness of love and romantic vibes!

Celebrating Religious Harmony

The Inter-Religious Organisation (IRO) celebrated their 75th Anniversary on 23rd January 2024 at The Dunearn Ballroom, commemorating the significant milestone. The Guest-of-Honour, Deputy Prime Minister Lawrence Wong, emphasised the importance of preserving religious harmony in his speech. The event also brought together religious leaders and dignitaries.

THE DINING ROOM

My husband and I went up to the third floor sofa area after lunch at The Dining Room. We realised that his phone was missing after we returned home. I called The Dining Room and was told that no phone was left at The Dining Room. But luckily, the staff was kind enough to go up to third floor sofa to search. He found the phone and called me immediately. We are so grateful for his kind help and for taking the extra effort to search for the phone.

Exploring Beyond the Classroom: Learning through Adventures

At MindChamps PreSchool @ Raffles Town Club, our commitment to holistic education goes beyond the classroom. Check out how we celebrated our N1 to K2 Champions, tailoring their learning journeys to ignite curiosity and foster growth!

N1: Empowering Confidence

Our N1 Champs conquered obstacle courses and embraced a Champion Mindset of "I Can Do It!". From overcoming hurdles, to instilling self-belief and confidence, this adventure set the foundation for a journey filled with courage and determination.

N2: Spreading Kindness

Our N2 journeyed to NTUC FairPrice Supermarket, armed with shopping lists to donate to the Willing Hearts Orphanage. They searched for the various items on their lists and scanned the items themselves at the self-checkout. Through these small acts, they learnt the value of empathy and community spirit, shaping future compassionate Champions.

K1: Culinary Exploration

Champs from K1H indulged in culinary delights as they toured All Things Delicious Café, where they excitedly ordered their own treats independently. Meanwhile, our K1P class explored the realms of healthy eating, scouting for nutritious options with the Healthier Choice logo for their Gourmet Steamboat feast.

K2: Literary Adventure

Our K2 Champs embarked on a journey of discovery as they explored the wonders of the library, expanded their literary horizons and learnt essential library etiquette. The K2 Champs designed and distributed bookmarks on library manners, embodying two of the 10 MindChampion Attributes of "I am Confident" and "I am Creative".

Celebrate these remarkable achievements with us and embark on educational adventures that inspire confidence, kindness, and a love for learning.

We'd love to hear your review!

FUN Activities Mum & Dad Will Love

Mother and Father's Day are just around the corner. Show appreciation for your mum and dad with fun and meaningful activities that you will surely love, too. Check out our list of activity options and start planning now!

Little Tips Before We Start:

- Do what mum and dad love. Choosing activities that interest them or are their hobbies to show them the day is all about them.
- The gift of quality time. The main goal of the activities is to spend quality time with mum and dad. It can be as easy as helping them with something on their to-do list at home or taking a leisurely stroll.

Indulge in a feast

If mum and dad are always making the meals for everyone, treat them a meal that they will love. You can have the whole family join the fun by recreating dishes that they adore together. If you want to save the hassle, make a reservation at mum and dad's favourite restaurant. If mum and dad are adventurous, consider find a new location you think mum and dad would enjoy. Don't miss out the amazing Mother and Father's Day specials created by our team of culinary chefs at our Signature restaurants. Check P5 and P9 for details and make booking today.

Enjoy a staycation

No one says we have to limit the celebration to a day! Make it a weekend celebration with a staycation in town. Enjoy a sense of peace in a cosy hotel room and relax by the poolside – Mother and Father's Day with a bliss!

If you are looking for a staycation for the family, don't look further. Raffles Town Club staycation package offers the convenience of relaxation and dining all together. Take a look at P27 for all the perks we have prepared for your family.

Volunteer together

Volunteering together not only creates a good cause but also builds a special bond for the family. Pick something that is close to both of your hearts, such as preparing care packs for organisations in need or help soup kitchen to distribute meals to the elderly and disabled. You may even make it a yearly tradition!

Book a photo shoot

Share old memories

Looking through old photos and videos from family vacation, birthday parties, festive holidays and more is one sentimental way to share family memories. Add in a bit of fun by adding in mum and dad's photo before becoming a mum and dad (don't forget they were once a baby, toddler and teenager too.) and take a trip together down the memory lane.

Tackle the to-do list

While we think most of the mums and dads want to stay away from their household responsibilities on Mother and Father's Day, some may want nothing but a helping hand. If there are some tasks that mum and dad have been putting off, such as cleaning the coffee machine, fixing the cabinet hinge or declutter the store room. Use the day as an opportunity to help mum and dad cross it off the to-do list.

Conduct an interview

Arrange a one-hour interview with mum and dad and learn all sorts of new things about them. There are endless questions you can ask them, from their childhood, what they remember about their parents, first job and wedding day to best advice they ever got and what's their most treasured possession.

Write a thank you letter

Mum and dad have been a powerful influence on us and shaped us for who we are today. A handwritten card to express your appreciation for their dedication and for all the wonderful gifts of wisdom mum and dad have given you over the years. Everyone will probably end up in happy tears.

Encourage self-care

Being a mum and dad mean always taking care of others. Take the opportunity to let them focus solely on themselves. Be it finding peace in a yoga class, sweating it out in a body combat workout or pampering at a spa session, mum and dad will definitely appreciate a few hours taking care themselves with you by the side.

YOGA vs PILATES

Yoga and pilates are often seen as very similar workouts with similar benefits. How do you decide which to include in your exercise routine to help achieve your fitness goal? Let us understand more about yoga and pilates before you decide.

What is Yoga?

Originated from ancient India and developed into present day's yoga that blends physical poses with breathing techniques. There are many variations of yoga with some more physically demanding while others are more meditative.

What is Pilates?

Pilates was developed by Joseph Pilates during World War I as rehabilitation for wounded soldiers. Later dancers practise pilates for injury prevention. Usually, beginners start from pilates mat classes before proceeding to classes with reformer.

Similarities

Here are some of the similarities between of yoga and pilates:

- Both are low impact workouts with emphasise on deep breathing.
- Both can be done using your own bodyweight as resistance and requires only a mat and a few props.
- Both focus on proper breathing during exercise or breathing deep into the belly.
- Both require mental focus.
- Both aim to increase strength and endurance without building bulk.
- Both emphasise on the importance of getting into proper pose; however, both allow modification of pose to tailor to different fitness level.
- Both are suitable for all ages.

Differences

Below are some of the differences between yoga and pilates:

Yoga

- Starts with a pose, hold the pose and then flow into the next pose, using body weight as resistance with focused breathing.
- Generally, yoga gives your body a balanced full-body workout with more standing posture. Increases strength, improves flexibility and balance.
- Breathing techniques that promote relaxation and improve mental well-being.

Pilates

- Adopts a pose and then uses small controlled movement of arms or legs to challenge your core with intentional breathing.
- Focus on strengthening and stabilising the core and tones muscle.
- Breathing techniques used for energy.
- When combined with physiotherapy, exercises tailored to specific condition help with injuries rehabilitation.

Which one is for you?

It is no surprise that yoga and pilates are long time favourites as they bring mind and body benefits. If you would like to focus on improving flexibility, seeks relaxation as well as better mind-body connection, yoga may be a more suitable choice. On the other hand, if you would like to focus on building core strength and stability while improving overall fitness, pilates may be your choice.

Still cannot decide? Sign up for both yoga and pilates classes and experience them in person!
